

Role model to whom the student aspires to become through observation of pedagogy

"I would aspire to be like my host teacher as she was well organized, had great classroom management and could always keep the children's attention"
(BEd 1 Student)

"From observing the teacher as she taught I noted the techniques she used, for example when interacting with the children and disciplining, and I used these myself" (BEd 4 Student)